

City University
Department of Business Administration
BBA Program
Class Test, Summer- 2021
MIS 201: Introduction to Management Information System
Campus: City

Time: 40 Min.

Marks: 10

True/False questions (write the correct answer, if the statement is false):

1. Physical equipment used for input, processing, and output actives in an information system → Computer Software
2. Output that is returned to the appropriate member son the organization to help them evaluate or correct input → Network
3. People such as secretaries or bookkeepers who process the organizations paperwork → Data Workers
4. An abstraction of what an enterprise is and how the enterprise delivers a product or service, showing how to enterprise creates wealth → Business Processes
5. A system with universally accepted standards for storing, retrieving, formatting and displaying information in a networked environment. → Management Information Systems (MIS)

Written short questions:

1. The unique ways in which organizations coordinate and organize work activities, information and knowledge to produce a product or service-
2. All the hardware and software technologies a firm needs to achieve its business objectives-
3. Streams of raw facts representing events occurring in organizations or the physical environment before they have been organized and arranged into a from the people can understand and use-
4. The linking of two or more computers to share data or resources, such as a printer-
5. Detailed, preprogrammed instructions that control and coordinate the work of computer hardware components in an information system-

Section: B (Any One)

1. How are information systems transforming business, and what is their relationship to globalization?
2. What exactly is an information system? How does it work? What are its management, organization, and technology components?